

Transfer Pricing Consultant

Summary

The employee will be a highly productive and functioning member of the team with technical knowledge. The employee will perform general legal functions for local management and external reporting needs.

Key attributes & competencies

Ability to work with deadlines;
Good communication across all levels of business;
Team player;
Organization;
Confidentiality;
Analytical mind;
Strong systems skills;
Integrity & trust
Organizational agility
Patience
Problem solving
Time management
Highly detail oriented
Advanced English communication skills
Ability to work cooperatively and collaboratively with all levels of employees, management, and external agencies to maximize performance, creativity, problem solving and results.

Technical and soft skills requirements:

Graduates from Finance / Accounting
Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English and Romanian
Proficient IT skills (Word, Excel, Power Point)
Diligent, self-motivated, positive attitude
Willingness to learn
Critical thinking, analytical skills
Attention to detail with a commitment to high quality and accuracy
Desire to exceed expectations

Main tasks and responsibilities:

Job purpose

As a Transfer Pricing Consultant, you will work on various client transfer pricing projects in different industry sectors. Apart from gaining significant transfer pricing knowledge and experience, you will also keep informed of professional standards and firm policies and procedures and effectively apply this knowledge to different client situations.

Client responsibilities

- Involve in various transfer pricing related projects

- Work closely with colleagues
- Perform research on various companies, industry sectors, technical tax and transfer pricing matters
- Preparation of transfer pricing documentation reports, advice memoranda, presentations, correspondence, various other deliverables/working papers, and other documents in conjunction with serving the client
- Performing benchmarking analyses for the purpose of determining the market value of related party transactions (including conducting database searches and analyzing financial data) and giving advice regarding various transfer pricing aspects
- Develop and maintain strong working relationships with client personnel, including meetings and calls.
- Constantly follow-up on related engagement
- Contribute to positive work environments, share information and ideas

Administrative responsibilities

Take full responsibility of the firm's TP portfolio, assure files status are kept in order, prepare briefs and reports for Partners related to the portfolio and files status. Review and improve brochures and newsletters on TP, support or lead business development efforts.

Working conditions:

- Involves working in the firm's office.
- Must present a positive public image.
- Occasional overtime hours expected.